Mother	Margaret May BERRY (1877-1957)

Individual Notes

- So...what I know is that I stayed with "Eleanor" and Joy Matteson one Christmas in Palo Alto. They lived on Martin St. They had three children. [3835, p 2]
- Yes, I agree. Our mothers must have known each other. My parents lived on Lorraine [Lorain] Road in San Marino—I recall my mother telling me and the street name just popped into my head right now. I wonder how close that is to Oak Grove Avenue?

Ted and Sally were born in Pasadena—where the hospital was, yet the family lived in San Marino. My Dad worked for the American Can Company for his entire career in sales, so he must have had an assignment there and then relocated to the SF Bay Area in 1944 or 1945 and worked in SF on Harrison for years. [5369]

- [excerpts] MATTESON, Joy Folger - Passed away at his Sharon Heights home on December 14th after a lengthy illness. He was 88. He lived in the Palo Alto and Menlo Park communities for the last fifty-one years.

A native Californian, born in Stockton, California, Mr. Matteson was an economics graduate of U. C. Berkeley, where he was a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

He retired from the American Can Company after a 45 year career in sales, introducing the beer can and the milk carton to the California consumer market.

Memberships included the Menlo Country Club. He was an avid golfer, domino player and world traveler. He believed in the joy of hard work, loving family and friends and taking time to celebrate life and smell the roses. [8221]
