Individual Notes

- Loyd Hamilton Wilbur is my great grandfather, and you show his parents (Amos and Elmira), but I couldn't find Amos and Elmira's parents to link back.⁷³¹⁶
- Loyd Hamilton Wilbur, 63, orchardist of Sutter county, died in his home on the Pease road near Yuba City Sunday, following a long illness.
 Wilbur was born in Sutter county in 1880, the son of A. H. and Elmira Wilbur. He was educated at St. Matthews Military Academy in Santa Cruz and the University of California. He had engaged in farming in Sutter county since 1900 and was much interested in problems pertaining to fruit growing. Wilbur was known for his interest in outdoor sports and wildlife.⁷⁵⁵⁹
- His [Richard Roberts Wilbur] father, who was born in 1880 and died in 1943, was a farmer, among the first to raise peaches in Sutter County.⁸⁶³²

Individual Notes
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • ...survived by Richard Wilbur, of Sutter county.⁷⁵⁵⁹ • My second cousin Emily and I are close. She comes from the Richard line (the first Loyd married Ethel Eckart and had Richard, Roger, and Loyd Jr). I was nosing through newspapers from the first Richard's life and found a report of a marriage and divorce no one appears to know about. An article state the divorce was granted, and the couple, Edith and Richard Wilbur, married in April of 1934 and divorced 1940. There are legal notices of court changes indicating there was a minor child for whom he was paying support. I looked up ALL USA records of marriages and divorces and there is not one that even looks plausible for April of 1934. But I also can find no record of any divorce. I don't think I have ever been flat out unable to find ANYTHING. The only marriage I can find a record of is his marriage to Dorothy Perkins in 41.⁸⁶²¹ • [excerpts] Four bodies were found today in the wreckage of a twin-engine plane that crashed into the Sandia Mountains overlooking Albuquerque during the weekend. Although the alert on the missing Yuba City plane listed only three persons aboard the craft, CAP officials said the log book contained the names of Lloyd D. (Sparky) Rogers, Fred Thomas, Jim Blevins, and Richard Wilbur.⁸⁶²⁵ • [excerpts] Although his career was not a long one, Richard Roberts Wilbur, through his thorough knowledge of fruit production and his spirit of enterprise, earned a place as one of America's outstanding orchardists. In Sutter County, California, where his father had engaged in the same occupation before him, he established a level of peach production which ranked him as the largest individual grower of this fruit in the world. He also raised prunes, walnuts, and almonds on a large scale. He found time in a busy career for organizational affairs and varied avocational activities. By the end of his life, Mr. Wilbur was farming about three thousand acres of peaches, prunes, walnuts and almonds, and was reputedly the largest individual peach grower in the world. His operations had steadily increased over the years, and have been continued effectively since his death by his widow, Dorothy Irene Wilbur. Despite the demands of running his large operation, Mr. Wilbur impressed all who knew him as a friendly, calm, relaxed, soft-spoken and humble man. He was a Republican, and a communicant of the Episcopal Church.⁸⁶³²
